NEGOTIATION PLAN

General Requirements

Each Participating Team shall submit a negotiation plan (the "Negotiation Plan") for only the first Negotiation Session in the Preliminary Rounds.

The purpose of the Negotiation Plan is to present the objectives and goals of the respective party to the Negotiation Simulation.

The Negotiation Plan shall contain a case analysis evaluating the respective strategic strong points and weak points of each party to the Negotiation Simulation, their respective needs and interests, and their BATNAs and WATNAs.

A Negotiation Plan must strictly conform to the following general requirements. Non-conformity may attract negative marking in a manner that the organizers may deem fit. A Negotiation Plan must:

- only be typed on a plain white A4 paper with black ink;
- be no more than two pages long (excluding a front cover and back cover);
- only use the following format: Times New Roman, size 12, single line spacing, 1 inch or 2.54 cm margin on all sides (no text must be placed within this margin of the page, other than the page number);
- not use footnotes; and
- not disclose the names of the team members, coach, institution or country in any manner, and, in order to maintain anonymity, the Negotiation Plan shall only contain the allotted team code for identification.

Submission

The Negotiation Plans for all Preliminary Rounds Negotiation Simulations must be submitted to the Competition Administrator by email with .doc/.docx and .pdf file extensions on or before the Submission Date i.e., 22nd June 2022. Failure to comply with the Submission Date deadline will attract penalty.

The Participating Teams will not be permitted to modify their Negotiation Plans after the submission to the Competition Administrator.

Evaluation

The Organizers will make reasonable efforts to ensure that the Negotiation Plans for the Preliminary Rounds are evaluated before the Negotiation Sessions by external judges.

Subject to any penalty levied or in case of tie to qualify for subsequent rounds, the score received for a Negotiation Plan will not be counted towards that Participating Team's overall score in the specific Negotiation Session. The negotiation plans shall be adjudicated only for the purpose of the award of "Best Negotiation Plan" to be awarded to one of the participating teams.

JUDGES

General

MediateGuru will be responsible for selecting the Judges for the Competition and for allocating them to a Negotiation Session in each round of the Competition. Every attempt will be made for the Participating Teams to face different Judges in each round; however due to limited availabilities, this might not always be possible.

Judging Criteria

The Judges will evaluate and score the performance of the Participating Teams according to the judging criteria which will include the following:

- Introduction and identification of issues
- Team work
- Building relations with the other party
- Generation of creative legal solutions
- Analysis of interests and answering questions during the feedback session
- Best interests and settlement
- Questioning by Judges

Ranking

Each judge will mark the team according to the Judging Criteria outlined in the Competition Rules or otherwise communicated by the organizers to the Participating Teams. The team that secures the higher number of points on a particular judge's Score Sheet will be the winner on that judge's Score Sheet.

The Judges will be informed that they cannot mark both teams with an equal score and must necessarily give higher marks to one of the two teams.

At the end of the Preliminary Rounds, the Participating Teams will be ranked based on the following criteria:

the total number of overall points scored;
in the case of a tie, the total number of Score Sheets designating a "Win";
and in case there continues to be a tie, then the scores of their negotiation plan will be considered as a tie breaker.

Qualification to next Round

The four top ranked Participating Teams from the Preliminary Rounds will advance to the Semi-Final Rounds.

The Semi-Final and Final Rounds of the Competition shall be knock-out rounds. In each of these rounds, Participating Teams will be ranked based on the following criteria:

the total number of Score Sheets of that round designating a "Win";

in the case of a tie, the total number of points scored in that round;

and in case there continues to be a tie, their scores of negotiation plan will be considered as a tie breaker.

MISCELLANEOUS

Notification to the organizers

The submission of the Negotiation Plans, queries and clarification in relation to the Negotiation Simulations and any other questions/requests must be submitted to admin@mediateguru.com

Notification to the Participating Team

If any one of the members of a Participating Team is notified or informed of any detail or information concerning the Competition, it will be deemed that the said Participating Team as a whole has been duly notified or informed.

Time

Any reference to time in the Competition Rules will be construed as a reference to Indian Standard Time.

Dress Code

Members of Participating Teams should be dressed in formal dress for the duration of the Competition, including for the welcome address and the valedictory.

Withdrawals and blacklisting

The Competition Administrator may, at its discretion, blacklist a team and/or the University of a team from participation in future editions of the Competition if that team or the University of that team unjustifiably withdraw from the Competition after having committed to participate.

Residual

The organizers may take such other measures as are required for the orderly and fair conduct of the Competition. The organizers' interpretation as to the implementation of the Competition Rules is final and conclusive.

Walkover

If any team, on their allotted time, doesn't appear. The opposing team would get there scores doubled in their previous or upcoming round.

For ex. If in Prelim 1 - Team 01 doesn't appear in front of Team 02, Team 02 would get a walkover and there scores of Prelim 2 would be doubled to compensate for Prelim 1.

Our Message

We believe that strong negotiation and mediation skills can help people in all industries resolve conflicts in their workplace, in their home and in their personal life. The ability to negotiate can change how you perceive conflict and how you deal with it. Additionally, we believe that taking things online is the new must. Therefore, we would like to encourage and support students in taking this step.
